GRANT NEWS!

While the Memorial Community Center is INCREDIBLY grateful for each and everyone's monetary and time donations, we also depend on grants to help us support our preschool and our art classes.

Thank you to...

Delores Matthews. With the help and dedication of our amazing board member and grant writer, Delores Mathews, the MCC has been the recipient of two grants!

Through the Idaho Community Fund, MCC received a grant from the Idaho Future Fund for $20,000 dollars to support our excellent preschool for the 2023-2024 school year!

Additionally, we received a $5,000 grant from the Idaho Community Foundation for Arts Enhancement. This will allow us to continue our many art class offerings which enrich our community. This grant allows us to provide low cost art lessons each week, year round, taught by a variety of art instructors.

Thank you to...

Kirk & Jill Merica, and Doug & Linda Freyberg for their donation of five picnic tables. These will be great for our upcoming summer and fall events, and for the preschool area.

MUSIC!

Our always popular music event was well attended and everyone had a wonderful time while enjoying the Music of Bruce Bishop and Beth Pederson.

Thank you to...

Thank you to Cynthia Fox and Vera Gadman for hosting the June 21st music event. The volunteers who made this all possible were Laura and Steve Funk (set up, food prep, service), Karen Kaemmer (food prep), Joyce Butler (food prep, cookies, planter), Deb and Robert Kellerman (food prep), Marie and Larry Bledsoe (setup), Art Fox (setup), Lori and Sean Finnerty (bar), Dawn Brinker (Friends), Susan Howard (raffles), Ellie Lizotte and Lynda Christel (flowers), Delores Matthews, Regan Johnson, Mary Donovan, and Judy Mickel (cookies) and Byron Miller (cleanup). Mary Donovan did a great job coordinating all the volunteers and helped at the event from start to finish. We appreciate everyone who helped make this a lovely evening. If you would like to experience the joy of volunteering at MCC, contact Mary at ivolunteermcc@gmail.com.
