HAPPY NEW YEAR

We are excited to begin 2022. This year we hope to build on our success by continuing to offer valuable programs, fun events and by expanding our special interest groups. Together we can create an enjoyable space for everyone to feel they are part of a growing community of neighbors.

Become a Friend of MCC

Each year at this time we reach out asking for your support by becoming a FRIEND of MCC. We believe the Community is AS STRONG AS WE ARE MANY! Your input, monetary support and participation is what we depend on year round to pay our bills, maintain the facility and preschool and provide affordable programs for everyone.

We hope you will donate today!

Christmas Giving

Thanks to you our Christmas Giving Program was very successful!

The donations we received surpassed our goal of $5,000. This allowed us to provide toys and gift cards to several families. We also gave $3,000 to the Clark Fork Hope Food Bank. They provided Christmas dinners and additional toys, clothes and gift cards to families in need this Holiday. Kaelene Bare and her team do an extraordinary job and our coordinated work together reaches more of our community. It's a great collaboration.

Clark Fork Girls Basketball Team Volunteers

Clark Fork Hope Food Bank
L to R: Nancy Rojje (FB volunteer), Dawn Brinker (MCC Chair), Kaelene Bare (FB Director), Dawn Madsen (FB volunteer).

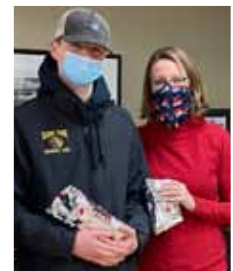

We had an energetic group of volunteers. The Clark Fork Girls Basketball Team helped wrap a large portion of the gifts. These girls worked hard showing initiative even when it came time to cleaning up they were very self directed. They were a pleasure to be around.

MCC Volunteers
L to R: Pam Hewitt, Laine Alexandra, Christine Kelley (MCC Vice Chair), Dawn Brinker (MCC Chair), Ley Anne Merica (co-secretary).

Thank you to all of the wonderful people who helped make this so successful.

MCC volunteers Owen and Heather Howard.

Thanks to The Knotty Knitters who knit and donate all the "Christmas Giving" hats. These dedicated women work year round knitting a beautiful assortment of hats for all the children and parents in our Christmas Giving Program. These unique hand knitted creations reflect the love put into each piece to allow every recipient to feel special as no two hats are the same. These are very special gifts donated by a very generous group.
